Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program

Foodland Farms, and the Western Union Foundation contributes more than $250,000 to match customer donations for all organizations combined. Since the program began in 1999, a total of more than $32.7 million has been raised for Hawaii's charities.

Hawaii Rotary Youth Foundation (HRYF) is participating in this year's Give Aloha, Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program. This program

Give Aloha, Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program, was originally launched in 1980 under the name of "Shop for Better Education." It was relaunched in 1999 as, "Give Aloha." The program was created to honor Foodland's founder, Maurice J. "Sully" Sullivan. His legacy continues to give back to his community.

"Sully Spent His Life Giving to the Community. His Legacy Continues."

"Throughout his lifetime, Foodland founder Maurice J. "Sully" Sullivan gave generously to many causes and encouraged the spirit of giving in others. It is in his honor that we present Give Aloha, Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program."

Throughout his lifetime, Foodland founder Maurice J. "Sully" Sullivan gave generously to many causes and encouraged the spirit of giving in others. It is in his honor that we present Give Aloha, Foodland's Annual Community Matching Gifts Program.

HRYF was founded by Mr. Sullivan during his year as Rotary's District Governor in Hawaii, 1976-77. It was Sully's desire to assist Hawaii's high school graduates realize their potential by attending a college or university of their choice here in Hawaii or on the mainland, United States. This coming year 2020, HRYF is awarding all 52 regular Rotary clubs a $5,000 scholarship and an opportunity of being awarded two $10,000 scholarships

How Will My Donations Be Matched?

Every year, the matching gift percentage varies and cannot be pre-determined. For the past 5 years, the matching percentage has been between 20%-25%. Thus, if a customer donated $100 to an organization, Foodland and the Western Union Foundation's matching gift was $20-$25. The actual matching gifts will be calculated at the end of the program. Organizations will receive 100% of all customer donations given to their organization, plus their % of Foodland and the Western Union Foundation's $300,000 matching gift.

Carl Miller, RI President (1963-1964)

Carl Miller, 1963-64 RI president, believed that paring clubs and districts in different countries promoted international understanding. He and his wife later make a $1 million gift in support of international service projects. In the 1990s, Carl P. Miller Discovery Grants enabled Rotary members to travel abroad to plan such projects. The grants were phased out in 2003-04 and was replaced with Individual Grants.

“When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has been opened for us.” — Helen Keller

Helen Adams Keller was born a healthy child in Tuscumbia, Alabama, on June 27, 1880. Her parents were Kate Adams Keller and Colonel Auther Keller.

At the age of 19 months, Helen became deaf and blind as a result of an unknown illness, perhaps rubella or scarlet fever. As Helen grew from infancy into childhood, she became wild and unruly.

Who was the first woman to defy racist bus laws?

Answer to the Quiz of the Week: Claudette Colvin!

Claudette Colvin

We had a great board meeting today with a lot getting accomplished. Things are moving along as planned, with monthly community projects and connecting the dots with other community organizations.

Claudette Colvin is a retired American nurse aide who was a pioneer of the 1950s civil rights movement. On March 2, 1955, she was arrested at the age of 15 in Montgomery, Alabama, for refusing to give up her seat to a white woman on a crowded, segregated bus.

Ace of Hearts

Rosa Parks was not the first woman to defy racist bus laws. In 1955, a young woman in Montgomery, Alabama, caused a stir when she refused to give her bus seat up to a White passenger. She was the first person arrested for protesting Montgomery's racist busing rule, and her defiance eventually became the subject of international attention. The woman was named Claudette Colvin, Actually, she was just a girl – 15 years old.

Of course, it was Rosa Parks Who went do3n in history for defying the Jim Crow laws in the dame way later the year. (For the record, it's a popular misconception that both women were arrested for sitting in "Whites only" section.) Colvin knew Parks from an NAACP youth group, and she also knew that Parks was the better person to be figurehead in their city's growing protest movement. Parks had done prior work with the NAACP, and “the organization didn’t want a teenager in the role,” Colvin explains. Jacapo della Quercia, RD.com
